UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Walking Together the Words and Ways of Jesus

Inclusive, Intergenerational, and In Community

Walking together the words and ways of Jesus. We welcome all God's children whatever their race, gender, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, nationality, ethnicity, marital status, physical or mental ability. Following Christ's example, we open our hearts, minds, and doors to welcome all.

No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

If you are young or old, you are welcome.

If you have brown skin, black skin, white skin, or any color of skin, you are welcome.

If you are married or single, you are welcome.

If you are gay, straight, transgender-whatever pronouns you use, you are welcome.

If you are sick or well, you are welcome.

If you are a perfect person, then you probably don't need a church, but if you are like us and are imperfect, mistake-making, still-trying, need all the encouragement I can get kind of person, then this is a community for you and you are welcome.

If you sing like a rock star or an opera singer, or you can not sing at all, you are welcome.

Whenever you arrived and however you came here, you are welcome.

If you believe in God some of the time or all of the time, or you're just beginning to explore who God is, you are welcome.

Come with your gifts, your pain, your hope, your fears.

Come with traditions that have helped you and hurt you.

Come with your experiences that have made you and broken you.

Come with a mind, ready to engage, and a heart, open to discern.

Come and listen for the Holy Spirit that calls you to love your neighbor wholeheartedly, seek justice, create peace and practice compassion.

You are welcome here!

HYMN

Jesus Loves Me

UMH 191, verse 1

Jesus loves me! This I know, for the Bible tells me so.
Little ones to him belong; they are weak, but he is strong.
Yes, Jesus loves me! Yes, Jesus loves me!
Yes, Jesus loves me! The Bible tells me so.

Luke 6:27-36

Common English Bible

Love for Enemies

"But I say to you who are willing to hear: Love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you. Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who mistreat you. If someone slaps you on the cheek, offer the other one as well. If someone takes your coat, don't withhold your shirt either. Give to everyone who asks and don't demand your things back from those who take them. Treat people in the same way that you want them to treat you.

"If you love those who love you, why should you be commended? Even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, why should you be commended? Even sinners do that. If you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, why should you be commended? Even sinners lend to sinners expecting to be paid back in full. Instead, love your enemies, do good, and lend expecting nothing in return. If you do, you will have a great reward. You will be acting the way children of the Most High act, for he is kind to ungrateful and wicked people. Be compassionate just as your Father is compassionate."

PRAYER

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Rev. Hope Bailey Hutchison

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

One: It is right, and a good and joyful thing,
always and everywhere to give thanks to You,
almighty God, creator of Heaven and earth.
In ancient days, You created us in Your image,
and called us to be Your people.
Even when we turned away and ignored Your voice,
You pursued us and called us:
through the proclamation of Your law, the words of Your prophets,
and the wisdom of storytellers.
In the fullness of time, You sent Your Son, Jesus Christ to call us yet again:
on the shores of Galilee, in crowded markets, and on dusty roads, inviting us to risk everything, and to place our trust in You.

And so, with Your people on earth, and all the company of heaven,
we praise Your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS (ALL SING)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord; God of pow-er and might.
Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

One: Holy are You and blessed is Your Son, Christ Jesus,
who called us His disciples,
even as He shared a final meal with them,
calling one and all to remember and reflect
when we eat of the bread and partake of the cup, “Take, eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”
“Drink from this, all of you.
This is my life, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these
Your mighty acts of love and grace,
we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION (ALL SING)

Christ has died, Christ is ris - en, Christ will come a - gain. Ho - san - na in the high - est Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

One: Pour out Your Holy Spirit on all of us gathered here,
 that we may answer Your call and be Your people.
 Pour out Your Holy Spirit
 on these gifts of bread and cup,
 that they may nourish and strengthen us
 to go into deep waters when You call us to take a risk.
 By Your Spirit, make us one with Christ,
 one with each other,
 and one in ministry to all the world,
 until Christ comes in final victory
 and we feast at Your heavenly banquet.
 Through Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit in Your holy Church
 all honor and glory is Yours, almighty God,
 both now and forevermore. Amen.

GREAT AMEN (ALL SING)

THE LORD'S PRAYER

(Unison) Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

QUESTIONS FOR WEEK FOUR REFLECTION | “WHOM WILL YOU LOVE?”

LUKE 6:27-36

1. Who do you know who has modeled the Golden Rule for you?
2. How do you prevent the Golden Rule from being applied egotistically or reciprocally? In other words, how can you treat a person the way he or she wants to be treated rather than the way you want to be treated?
3. What are some ways you can strengthen your capacity for empathy for other people?
4. How will you learn to love those who are hard for you to love and forgive those who have harmed you?
5. Which of these three teachings of Jesus – turn the other cheek, give away your shirt, walk a second mile – is easiest for you to understand and apply? Which is the hardest?

Welcome to our brand-new group for neurodivergent people, partners, and families! We hope to joyfully weave an intergenerational web of experience as we navigate a neurotypical world together.

Neurodivergent people self-identify as having a brain that works in a way different from common societal expectations, such as ADD or autism spectrum. A formal diagnosis from a doctor is not required to join us. If you or your person would like more support, then you are welcome!

If you have questions, please contact Kelsey by email

LAKE HARRIET UM PRESCHOOL

Help the toddlers get outside to play!

Want to feel like a hero? You can be one for Toddler Teachers helping them get toddlers dressed for playing in the snow at recess!

One of the birthrights of a Minnesotan is to grow up loving the cold and snow. But that doesn't happen without ample time outside playing in the elements from an early age. And getting 12 squirmy bodies into snow pants, boots, mittens, hats, jackets and scarves can be a big task for anyone!

Please consider lending a hand to these cute little smiling faces any time Monday-Friday between 10 and 11am.

You'll also be helping out their parents knowing kids sleep better when they've had a chance to trudge through the snow, build snow structures and get some large motor movement outside.

Our current team of 11 volunteers are helping while children are napping so teachers can have a weekly staff meeting, and we've lost a few volunteers to "sunnier climes" during the winter months.

Our goal is 10 people to show up every other week and do four visits a piece to get us through March. We've got two folks already, so help us reach our goal!

Please let Andrea Wright (LHUMP Director) at awright@lakeharrietumpreschool.org or Frances Durkin (Preschool Volunteer coordinator) know about your interest and how to get started.

Science and Faith Book Study

Believing Scientist: Essays on Science and Religion by Stephen M. Barr

Starts February 2

Sundays – 11:00 am-noon – Zoom only

Facilitator: Chris Dozier and Paul Glewwe

Both an accomplished theoretical physicist and a faithful Catholic, Stephen Barr in this book addresses a wide range of questions about the relationship between science and religion, providing a beautiful picture of how they can coexist in harmony. In his first essay, "Retelling the Story of Science," Barr challenges the widely held idea that there is an inherent conflict between science and religion. He goes on to analyze such topics as the quantum creation of universes from nothing, the multiverse, the Intelligent Design movement, and the implications of neuroscience for the reality of the soul. The Believing Scientist helpfully engages pressing questions that often vex religious believers who wish to engage with the world of science.
