Everything Changes

lake harriet
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Walking Together the Words and Ways of Jesus

Inclusive, Intergenerational, and In Community

Walking together the words and ways of Jesus. We welcome all God's children whatever their race, gender, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, nationality, ethnicity, marital status, physical or mental ability. Following Christ's example, we open our hearts, minds, and doors to welcome all.

No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

If you are young or old, you are welcome.

If you have brown skin, black skin, white skin, or any color of skin, you are welcome.

If you are married or single, you are welcome.

If you are gay, straight, transgender-whatever pronouns you use, you are welcome.

If you are sick or well, you are welcome.

If you are a perfect person, then you probably don't need a church, but if you are like us and are imperfect, mistake-making, still-trying, need all the encouragement I can get kind of person, then this is a community for you and you are welcome.

If you sing like a rock star or an opera singer, or you can not sing at all, you are welcome.

Whenever you arrived and however you came here, you are welcome.

If you believe in God some of the time or all of the time, or you're just beginning to explore who God is, you are welcome.

Come with your gifts, your pain, your hope, your fears.

Come with traditions that have helped you and hurt you.

Come with your experiences that have made you and broken you.

Come with a mind, ready to engage, and a heart, open to discern.

Come and listen for the Holy Spirit that calls you to love your neighbor wholeheartedly, seek justice, create peace and practice compassion.

You are welcome here!

Open us to letting go of how we think things are,

CONTEMPORARY READING

(Leader) Pablo Picasso was one of the most influential artists of the 20th century. This is not because of one style, although he is famous as the father of cubism. But he had several artistic “periods” during his life, and he was constantly changing - innovating, and pushing himself to discover new expressions of art. One of his most famous quotes is this: “Every act of creation is first of all an act of destruction.” What do we need to let go of, what needs to be destroyed so that God can create something new in us?

Hear this poem, “Rebirth” by poet Alex Elle.

“Rebirth”
there will be moments when you will bloom fully and then wilt, only to bloom again.
if we can learn anything from flowers it is that resilience is born even when we feel like we are dying.

New Revised Standard
Version Updated Edition

Some Greeks Wish to See Jesus

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew, then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain, but if it dies it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

One: The Word of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God!

MESSAGE

Everything Changes

Rev. Karen Bruins

(Leader) Each week, we have a time of contemplation as an opportunity to shape Play-Doh as we think about change in our own lives. Today I invite you to use the Play-Doh to create a representation of seeds that are waiting to be planted and broken open. As you create them, think about concrete examples of what is possible in your life and in our community. Even if you have no idea what seeds are waiting to be sprouted in your life, simply allow the shaping of the clay to be your prayer of willingness to let go into the possibilities.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In silence we pray for

- those who are experiencing change in their work
- those who are experiencing change in their health
- those who are experiencing change in relationships
- we pray for necessary change to our political landscape
- for the change we need in our lives

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

New Small Group for Adults (teens welcome too)

Sundays, 10:45am (after worship)

September 21-October 26, 2025

Facilitators: Pastor Karen Bruins and John Babbs

Since the fourth century after the resurrection of Jesus, a basic statement of Trinitarian faith circulated and continues to guide Christians across most traditions and denominations. The Apostles Creed stands the test of time because each article of the creed draws from New Testament teaching and symbolizes the essentials of our faith. These beliefs help bind and unify followers of Christ into a shared life of grace and love together.

Unleavened Bread

Welcome to Unleavened Bread, a “book club” for Bible readers. In this small group, you are encouraged to set aside time each day to read the Bible at your own pace and write down your thoughts after in a journal. Our next gathering is Sunday, September 21, 5:30-7PM in the Fireside Room. Questions? Email Jungjoo at jungjoo.park@lakeharrietumc.org.

Irreducible: Consciousness, Life, Computers, and Human Nature by Federico Faggin

Sundays, 11am-Noon (Zoom only)

Meetings begin September 21

Facilitators: Chris Dozier and Paul Glewwe

Please purchase a book via your favorite book seller.

This fall the Science and Religion group will be reading Federico Faggin's book, Irreducible: Consciousness, Life, Computers and Human Nature. Faggin invented the microprocessor as well as MOS gate technology at Intel and received the 2009 National Medal of Technology and Innovation, the highest honor the United States confers for achievements related to technological progress.

Faggin had a powerful conversion experience from atheism to belief in God in 1990. In this book Faggin argues that consciousness is an irreducible fundamental force of nature, more fundamental even than electromagnetism or gravity. He argues that consciousness comes from God, is eternal and has the hallmark of love. Faggin makes the case that the meaning (semantics) behind our linguistic expressions of knowledge comes from divinely created human consciousness. Machine generated syntactic representations of knowledge (e.g., generative artificial intelligence) only give the appearance of cognition and are based on training data and algorithms created by humans. Machines themselves can never become conscious. Faggin also asserts that the discoveries of quantum mechanics support the idea of universal consciousness. In his book, Faggin does not tie his ideas to a particular religion. It will be the job of the discussion group to see how well his arguments are congruent with our Christian beliefs.

Session Three

The Yellow Zone

We are on a reflective journey together about change. In our third session, we are reminded that what feels like the chaos, or recklessness, of change is the breaking-open of possibility and the sprouting of new life. Here is an excerpt from scripture:

Unless a grain of wheat is buried in the ground, dead to the world, it is never any more than a grain of wheat. But if it is buried, it sprouts and reproduces itself many times over. In the same way, anyone who holds on to life just as it destroys that life. But if you let it go, reckless in your love, you'll have it forever, real and eternal. — John 12: 20-26 (The Message)

Let us light a candle, take a deep breath, and pray:

Breaking-Open God,
you call us to let the seeds of your love
be planted anew in us again and again.
Open us to letting go of how we think things are,
and allow us release as we are broken open into new life.
Calm our fears, and animate our spirits
for this time of discovery.
Amen.

[For groups]: In our conversation, everyone is invited to share, but sharing is not required. Please make room for all voices, keeping your contribution to a respectful time limit so everyone has a chance. Whatever is said here stays here – not because we are telling secrets but because we honor that what a person says here is their story to share.

I invite you to share something from the video that felt familiar or gave you an “aha” about your own process of change. What felt challenging? These are just suggestions... feel free to share whatever is bubbling up around this topic.
