Life Hacks that Actually Work

Walking Together the Words and Ways of Jesus

Inclusive, Intergenerational, and In Community

Walking together the words and ways of Jesus. We welcome all God's children whatever their race, gender, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, nationality, ethnicity, marital status, physical or mental ability. Following Christ's example, we open our hearts, minds, and doors to welcome all.

If you are young or old, you are welcome.

If you have brown skin, black skin, white skin, or any color of skin, you are welcome.

If you are married or single, you are welcome.

If you are gay, straight, transgender-whatever pronouns you use, you are welcome.

If you are sick or well, you are welcome.

If you are a perfect person, then you probably don't need a church, but if you are like us and are imperfect, mistake-making, still-trying, need all the encouragement I can get kind of person, then this is a community for you and you are welcome.

If you sing like a rock star or an opera singer, or you can not sing at all, you are welcome.

Whenever you arrived and however you came here, you are welcome.

If you believe in God some of the time or all of the time, or you're just beginning to explore who God is, you are welcome.

Come with your gifts, your pain, your hope, your fears.
Come with traditions that have helped you and hurt you.
Come with your experiences that have made you and broken you.
Come with a mind, ready to engage, and a heart, open to discern.
Come and listen for the Holy Spirit that calls you to love your neighbor wholeheartedly, seek justice, create peace and practice compassion.

You are welcome here!

Adapted from a welcome by Gordon Brown, published in Shaping Sanctuary

ANNOUNCEMENTS

↑ CALL TO WORSHIP

One: God calls us to a life of wisdom—
wisdom for our words,
wisdom for our relationships,
wisdom for the stories we tell ourselves,
wisdom for the choices we make each day.

All: We come to listen,
to learn,
and to practice the way of Jesus.

One: May our words bring life.
May we listen before we assume.
May we remember who we are and whose we are.
May we offer our best, trusting in God's grace.

All: Come, let us worship God, who is still teaching us how to live.

↑ SONG

SCRIPTURE

We are in a worship series called "Life Hacks that Actually Work - Ancient Wisdom for Every Day Life." It is based on Scripture and on a little book called, "The Four Agreements" by Don Miguel Ruiz (©1997 Tarcher Publishing). The theme verse from this series comes from James 1:19.

HEARING AND DOING THE WORD

(Unison) You must understand this, my beloved brothers and sisters:
let everyone be quick to listen, slow to speak, slow to anger.

James 1:22-25

New Revised Standard
Version Updated Edition

But be doers of the word and not merely hearers who deceive themselves. For if any are hearers of the word and not doers, they are like those who look at themselves in a mirror; for they look at themselves and, on going away, immediately forget what they were like. But those who look into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and persevere, being not hearers who forget but doers who act—they will be blessed in their doing.

Colossians 3:23-24

Common English Bible

Whatever you do, do it from the heart for the Lord and not for people. You know that you will receive an inheritance as a reward. You serve the Lord Christ.

2 Corinthians 12:9-10

New Revised Standard
Version Updated Edition

but he (the Lord) said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." So I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ, for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

One: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God!

MESSAGE

Week Four: "Always Do Your Best"

Rev. Karen Bruins

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S SUPPER

One: Christ our Lord invites to this table all who love Christ, who seek forgiveness, and who desire to live in peace with one another.

We come to this table today not because we have gotten everything right.

We come not because we have loved perfectly, served perfectly, believed perfectly, or lived perfectly.

We come because God is gracious.

We come with what we have, with who we are,
and with the faith we can offer today.

And Christ says: Come. There is a place for you at this table.

CONFESSION AND PARDON

One: Let us confess our sin before God and one another.

All: Gracious God,
we confess that we often expect perfection
from ourselves and from one another.
We remember our failures
and forget your grace.
We compare ourselves with others.
We become discouraged when we fall short.
We hesitate to begin
because we are afraid we will not succeed.
Forgive us.
Teach us to trust your grace,
to offer what we have,
and to take the next faithful step.
Free us from the need to be perfect,
so that we may be faithful. Amen.

One: Hear the good news:

God's grace is sufficient.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, renewed, and invited to begin again.

All: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.
Glory to God. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

PREFACE

One: The Lord be with you. All: And al - so with you.

One: Lift up your hearts. All: We lift them up to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

One: It is right, and a good and joyful thing,
always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Holy God, Creator of heaven and earth.

You created a world of astonishing beauty and called it good.

You created us in your image and called us beloved.

You did not ask us to be flawless.

You asked us to walk with you, to love you,
to love one another, and to trust your grace.

When we wandered, you called us home.

When we failed, you offered another beginning.

When we were weary, you gave us strength for the next step.

Again and again, your grace has been enough.

And so today, on World Communion Sunday,
we join our voices with your people around the world—

with people worshipping
in cathedrals and country churches, in city sanctuaries and village chapels,
in homes and gathering places,
in languages familiar to us
and languages we have never heard.

With your people on earth
and all the company of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord; God of power and might._____

Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry._____

Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!

Ho - san - na in the high - est!_____ Blest is the one who comes_____ in the name of the Lord._____ Ho - san - na in the high - est!

Ho - san - na in the high - est! Ho - san - na in the high - est!_____

One: Holy are you, and blessed is Jesus Christ.

Jesus showed us what faithfulness looks like.

Jesus welcomed the outsider, noticed the forgotten,
touched the hurting, forgave the sinner,
challenged the powerful, and loved without counting the cost.

And when the road became difficult, Jesus remained faithful.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us,
Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you,
broke the bread, gave it to his disciples and said:

“Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

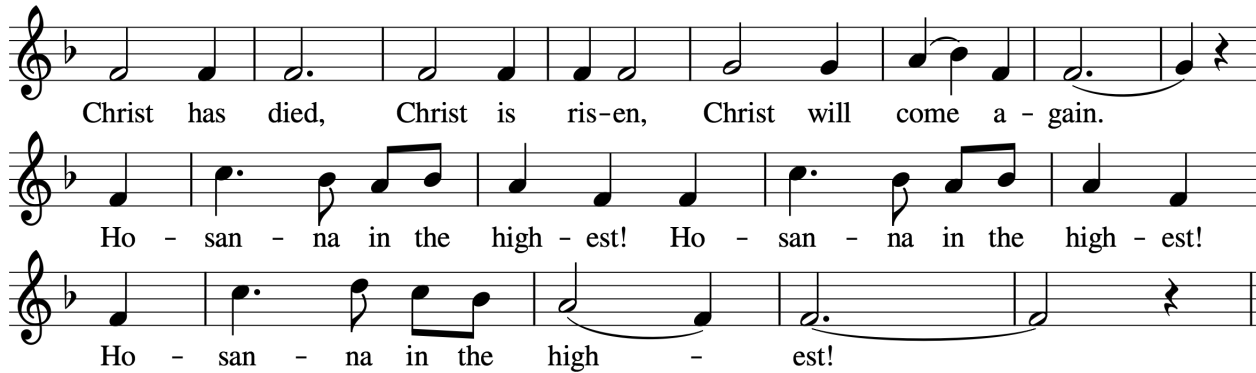

When the supper was over,
Jesus took the cup, gave thanks to you,
gave it to his disciples and said:

“Drink from this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
as a holy and living sacrifice,
in union with Christ's offering for us,
as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

One: Pour out your Holy Spirit
on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and cup.

Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ,
that we may be for the world the body of Christ.

When we are tempted to believe that we are not good enough, remind us that your grace is sufficient.

When we are afraid of failing, give us courage to begin.

When we stumble, help us rise.

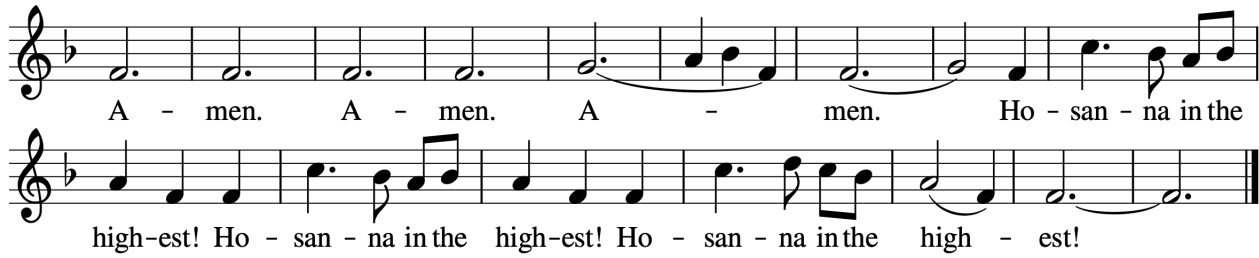

When we grow weary, give us strength.

And when we do not know what comes next,
show us the next faithful step.

By your Spirit, make us one with Christ,
one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world,
until Christ comes in final victory and we feast together at the heavenly banquet.

Through Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in your holy Church,
all honor and glory is yours, almighty God,
now and forever.

THE GREAT AMEN

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

↑ BLESSING

Go into this week
 not striving for perfection,
 but seeking to be faithful.

Do the best you can with what you have
 and where you are.

When you succeed, give thanks.
 When you fall short, receive grace.
 And when you are unsure what comes next,
 take the next faithful step.

God does not ask you to be perfect.
 God asks you to be faithful.

So offer your best,
 trust in God's grace,
 and go in peace. Amen.

CARING MINISTRIES

Church Care Team: There's a Place for You!

Did you miss the Care Team presentation on September 13? Curious to learn more? You are still welcome to get involved!

How do we make sure people in our church know they are seen, valued, and cared for? That's the heart of our new Care Team.

There are many ways to get involved:

- Card Senders – brighten someone's day with a note of encouragement.
- Meal Organizers – help coordinate meals when someone is going through a difficult time.
- Phone Calls – check in and stay connected with people who may be feeling isolated or unable to attend church.
- Joy Spreaders – find simple, creative ways to bring a little joy and connection to others.

You don't have to do everything—just find the way that fits your gifts.

This is Phase 1, we will roll out Phase 2 in the coming months for those interested in deeper care, including home visits, bringing Communion, supporting people through illness or grief, and helping us strengthen our visitor welcome. And training will be offered.

Interested in getting involved or learning more? Contact Lorrie Sandelin at lorrie.sandelin@lakeharrietumc.org.

SMALL GROUPS

Beyond The Nest

Have you launched a young adult—or are you getting ready to launch one? You're invited to our Beyond the Nest kickoff potluck, Thursday October 8 at 6:30pm at Lake Harriet UMC!

Whether you have an empty nest, are just beginning the launching process, or still have some kids at home, this group is for parents navigating this exciting—and sometimes challenging—life transition.

Come enjoy a meal, share stories, laugh together, and connect with others who understand what it's like to watch our young adults spread their wings.

Bring a dish (or a bag of chips) to share and join us as we kick off Year 3 of Beyond the Nest! Come for the food, stay for the conversation, and discover new ways to embrace this next chapter with support, understanding, and camaraderie.

Fall Meeting Dates: Thursday Oct 8 at 6:30pm Kick off Potluck, Thursday November 12 at 6:30pm and Thursday December 10 at 6:30pm.

GAME NIGHT MAHJONG

October Personal Hygiene Drive for Joyce Uptown Foodshelf

OUTREACH MINISTRIES

Let's Shower Our Neighbors with Love!

October Personal Hygiene Drive for Joyce Uptown Foodshelf

This October, we're collecting personal hygiene items for our neighbors at Joyce Uptown Foodshelf! These everyday essentials can be easy to overlook—but they make a big difference.

Biggest needs include:

- Toothbrushes
- Toothpaste
- Feminine hygiene products
- Deodorant
- Soap

Hotel samples and travel-size items are welcome, too! Those little bottles of shampoo, soap, lotion, and other toiletries you bring home from hotels can be put to great use. Let's fill our collection bins and shower our neighbors at Joyce Uptown Foodshelf with a little extra love this October!

Bring your donations to LHUMC throughout the month of October.

REGISTER by scanning the QR code or visiting bit.ly/wednesday-suppers

WEDNESDAYS 5:00-6:00PM

Wednesday Night Dinners

Meals will be served from 5-5:45pm starting Wednesday, September 23rd. The cost per person is $12 with a family cap of $36. You may register and pay for several weeks at once, or you can register and pay weekly, but you must register for every week you plan to attend for accurate head count.

RSVPS are needed ahead of time by MONDAY noon, so we can order the correct amount of food.

REGISTER by scanning the QR code or visiting bit.ly/every-meal-volunteer

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Every Meal Weekend Meal Distribution Program

Volunteers are needed to distribute food bags in children's backpacks on Fridays at Lyndale Community School. Commitment is from 10:45 – 12:30pm and involves discreetly placing food bags directly in children's backpacks or lockers.

Training will be provided. Must be 18 or older and able to lift up to 35 lbs.

Blessing of the Pets

Lake Harriet UMC Courtyard

Bring your furry, feathered, scaled, or stuffed friends for a special Blessing of the Pets!

Join us in the Lake Harriet UMC courtyard for an afternoon of songs, a special blessing, a service project, and treats!

Dogs welcome!
Cats welcome!
All pets welcome!
Stuffies welcome, too!

Whether your pet has four legs, two wings, fins—or is stuffed with fluff—we'd love to celebrate them with you!

Come gather, sing, serve, and give thanks for the animals who bring so much joy and love into our lives.

OCTOBER 29 4:30-6PM

Trunk Hosts Needed

Trunk or Treat is coming back to LHUMC! Join us for our second annual Trunk or Treat in the Lake Harriet UMC parking lot! LHUMC is partnering with The Waters and The Lake Harriet Preschool for this fun, FREE community event.

October 29 | 4:30-6PM
LHUMC Parking Lot

We need LHUMC volunteers to host a trunk! Decorate your car, bring some candy, and help make this a fun evening for our neighbors. And yes—there will be a Decorated Trunk Contest!

Want to host a trunk? Please sign up by October 22 by emailing lorriesandelin@lakeharrietumc.org.

Come join the fun—and bring your creativity!

COMMUNITY

MN Truth Council Initiative AND You!

The Minnesota Truth Council was established by Governor Walz, to create a comprehensive public record of the impacts of Operation Metro Surge on Minnesota.

Do you have a story to share? Most of us do. Four members of our congregation have gone through training to be Story Collectors and we are here for you to share your story in a private and safe way. Sharing your story will provide legitimate documentation of what happened to you, our neighbors, our community, our schools and how we supported one another.

A table will be set up in the church lobby for you to sign up to share your story and we'll be available to answer any questions.

There is still time to sign up for ALSET Fall Offerings

As we look toward the fall, ALSET is excited to offer a variety of opportunities for learning, spiritual growth, connection, and conversation. We have several ongoing groups returning, along with some new possibilities for the fall. If you weren't able to stop by the ALSET Table on Kickoff Sunday (Sept 13) you can still sign up here!

Science & Religion Book Study: 2084 and the AI Revolution

Sundays, 11:00 AM–Noon / Zoom

Led by Chris Dozier and Paul Glewwe, this fall we are using the book “2084 and the AI Revolution”, by John Lennox, for the continuation of the Science and Religion class that we have been teaching the last few years. We plan to hold the class online at 11 a.m. on Sunday mornings, starting on September 20. John Lennox is a retired professor of mathematics at Oxford University, and he has written several books on science and religion from a Christian perspective.

REGISTER and view schedule by scanning the QR code or going to REALM Events.

Unleavened Bread Bible Study

Third Sunday of each month 5:30-7:00 pm Led by Jungjoo Park

Participants engage in daily reading and journaling as part of this Bible study. The group continues to be a wonderful opportunity for spiritual growth and reflection. Jungjoo Park brings a wealth of knowledge and insight to the group.

Godly Play for Adults

The First Sunday of the month at 10:45am to 11:30am.

Class will be in the Godly Play room: October 4, November 1, December 6.

In this class, you will experience Godly Play, hearing a story, responding to wondering questions, and spending some creative time.

REGISTER and view schedule by scanning the QR code or going to REALM Events.

We Cry Justice

J is for Justice is started online September 14th and then will be in person on October 4th from 11am-12pm.

52-week study | Sundays at 11am and Zoom

In September, this 52-week study continues with both Sunday morning and Zoom opportunities.

Contemplative Practices Small Group

We are excited to have been awarded another grant through Saint Catherine University to support contemplative practices! The sessions will be led by Amy Campbell, a certified Spiritual Director. Amy is a spiritual director at The Loyola Center for Spirituality in St. Paul. The group will follow the Partnership for Contemplative Discipleship model, with trained facilitation and an emphasis on developing individual and collective contemplative practices.

REGISTER and view schedule by scanning the QR code or going to REALM Events.

Sessions will be approximately 90 minutes on Thursday evenings in a drop-in format. Dates: September 24, October 22, November 19, December 3 (1st Thursday due to the holiday), January 28, February 25, March 25 (Maundy Thursday), April 22, May 27. Child care is available. Please see registration information in the bulletin or church website.

Bible Study: Jeremiah

Thursdays at 10-11 am Three weeks: September 24, October 1, October 8

The October sermon series is “Anchored: How to Keep the Faith When the World Won’t Hold Still” and based on the Hebrew prophet Jeremiah. Spend 3 weeks with Pastor Karen exploring the Scriptures that will be sermon topics. Every day brings a new headline, a new crisis, a new reason to feel unsteady. It’s enough to make anyone wonder where solid ground even is anymore. The prophet Jeremiah knew this feeling. He prophesied through political upheaval, national division, and institutional collapse. And in the middle of all of it, he found something that didn’t move. This series is about finding that anchor for ourselves.

WEEKLY NEWS

Bulletin & E-News Submissions

Do you want to put an announcement in the e-news and bulletin?

Here are some helpful guidelines:

- Deadline for Bulletin Announcements is Tuesday 12pm. Anything submitted after that may have to be held until the following week.
- E-News deadline is Wednesday 12pm.

Please write up your announcement as you would like it posted. Communications will add a graphic, unless you have a specific picture you would like to use. Be aware that edits may need to occur depending on available space. Send a copy to communications@lakeharrietumc.org, AND kay.halverson@lakeharrietumc.org. Please do not ask staff to write up the announcement.

In your communication it would be helpful if you listed the dates that you would like the announcement to be posted (Ex: Please run announcement in e-news on 9/24 and 10/1 and bulletin on 9/27), as well as if you need a sign-up form created in Realm.

Announcements will typically appear no sooner than three weeks prior to an event or sign-up deadline.

If you have questions, feel free to reach out to the church office!
